

TechStore Q1 2025 Sales Report

Total revenue for Q1 2025 was $4.2 million, representing a 15% increase over Q1 2024. The laptop category drove most of the growth, with ProMax 15 sales up 32% year over year. Customer satisfaction scores averaged 4.3 out of 5.0 across all product categories.

Regional performance varied significantly. The West Coast region led with $1.8M in revenue (43% of total), followed by the East Coast at $1.2M (29%), Midwest at $720K (17%), and South at $480K (11%). The West Coast growth was driven primarily by enterprise laptop sales to tech companies in the Bay Area.

Sales by Product Category:

Product	Units Sold	Revenue	Avg Price	YoY Growth
ProMax 15	1,240	$1,611,600	$1,299	+32%
CloudBook Air	2,100	$1,468,900	$699	+12%
WorkStation Pro 17	380	$835,800	$2,199	+8%
Accessories	5,400	$285,700	$53	+22%
TOTAL	9,120	$4,202,000	-	+15%

Quarterly Revenue Trend:

Quarter	Revenue	Units	Satisfaction
Q1 2024	$3,654,000	7,920	4.1
Q2 2024	$3,890,000	8,340	4.2
Q3 2024	$4,010,000	8,700	4.2
Q4 2024	$4,580,000	9,800	4.4
Q1 2025	$4,202,000	9,120	4.3

Key Initiatives for Q2 2025:

1. Launch the new ProMax 16 model with M-series chip — targeting 20% higher performance at the same price point.
2. Expand enterprise sales team by 5 headcount, focused on West Coast and Midwest regions.
3. Implement new customer loyalty program with tiered discounts: Silver (5%), Gold (10%), Platinum (15%).
4. Reduce return rate from 8.2% to under 6% through improved product descriptions and pre-purchase support.
5. Pilot same-day delivery service in 3 metro areas: San Francisco, New York, and Chicago.

Report prepared by: TechStore Analytics Team | Confidential — Internal Use Only